Chancery Causes: Araminta Reese vs. David G. Reese

Jones

CA-Divorce

T-Property
Migration

To The Hon. H. S. K. Morrison Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County Virginia

Your Oratrix Arminia Reese, humbly complaining would respectfully represent that her husband David G. Reese has for the last several years been absent from the Country has abandoned his family without cause, and left the care support and maintenance their children to be borne alone by your Oratrix. The said David G. Reese, has no property of his own known to your Oratrix, except that which he acquired in right of his marriage with your Oratrix, being his Courtesy relative in certain land known as your Oratrix dower, in her former husband's land, one Jackson M. Jones. These lands have been partly sold for her said husband's debts, and she has paid, for him to prevent further sales about $100. - the sum in her own right jointly with her children 700 acres of mountain land, in one tract and two hundred in another, - Your estate has no means to support herself and family except from the rent and profits of these lands,

And abandoned by her husband and these lands sold from her for his liabilities she will be left perille. She is advised that a court of equity will grant her relief by making for her a suitable provision for support and maintenance, out of her own separate property thus encumbered with her said husband's marital right. She seeks no further divorce from her said husband, as she is advised she has no legal grounds for separation at yet.

To have said lands set apart to her, for support and maintenance free from the said Rees, Creditors, and her self sub-rogated to said Creditors ~~rights~~ rights whose debt she has paid is the object of this bill. The said Reese is a non-resident of this Commonwealth.

Her prayer therefore is that David G. Reese be made a party defendant to this bill & answer the same upon oath, that said Land, his Contingent Courtesy in her dower in the Land of Jackson Wm. Jones, and in her own Land situated in Turkey Cove Lee County Va as shown by the title papers, also his interest in the 700 acre, & 200 tracts of mountain Land situated in the Probosceread Lee County Va be attached and held liable for her support & maintenance, and on a hearing a decree to that effect be rendered, And if in any wise mistaken then that such other further and general relief be granted her as in equity she may be entitled. May your Honor.
